Nurse Faculty Loan Program

The goal of the Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) is to alleviate the nursing shortage by contributing to the pool of qualified nurse educators.

Up to 85% of tuition, fees, and reasonable education costs can be cancelled upon completion of:

- an advanced degree with a concentration in nursing education
- four years of full-time, or full-time equivalent, teaching in a faculty role at an accredited nursing program

Eligible Bryan College of Health Sciences programs:

- Master of Science in Nursing Education track
- Education Doctorate with Emphasis in Nursing Education

After completion of the degree, recipients have up to one year to find employment as faculty in order for the loan to be cancelled. Cancellation for the first three years of the loan is 20% and 25% for the fourth year, equaling 85% of the loan being cancelled.
